

Acknowledgments:

USGS Library staff
GeoRef (American Geological Institute)
US Bureau of Mines (defunct) MILS: Mineral Inventory Listing Service (also MAS)
USGS MRDS: Mineral Resources Data Service

Pin-Ching Chen Maness (my wife: for putting up with me, for helping and for invaluable advice).

James R. "Jim" Piper (data from MILS & MRDS computer databases)

Douglas C. "Doug" Peters (advice on MAS & MILS databases)

Dr. Charles J. Carstens (deceased). Wife, Betty, resides in Raleigh, NC.

Dr. Henry S. Brown geologist, resides in Raleigh, NC.

Dr. & Mrs. Wallace R. "Wally" Griffiths (for their expertise & irreplaceable publications).

Robert "Bob" Jordan (for his advice & valued reminiscences about SE mining).

Graham Curtis geologist, resides in Lakewood, CO.

Catharine Fogg (for her long-term advice and assistance).

Jane P. Ohl (for her long-term contributions to the profession of geology).

Ora H. Rostad (for his freely-given advice and much-valued assistance).

Blair Roberts (for allowing me to "pick his brains" and for patience with my oft-solicited advice).

Bruce Geller (for mineralogical expertise).

Jay Max Printers, 2600 East Street, Suite F, Golden, CO 80401, Tel: 303-278-3482 Fax: 303-278-9806. For high quality printing at a competitive price. Jay, the owner, is my printer: I highly recommend his services.